TESTIMONIAL

Working with Tim Powell at Q1 Consulting has been an excellent experience. Q1 is client-focused, dependable, and takes a consultative and focused approach to help guide our team in making smart, strategic business decisions.

Recently we contracted with Q1 to provide proprietary research in a specific area. Q1 delivered fact-based information in a straightforward, intelligible format. The results of that research impacted an important company decision both directionally and with resources.

I look forward to working with Q1 again.
